ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. Shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime:

On September 21, 2013, John Brandon Shively was arrested for Driving Under the Influence (DUI) by the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department, Nashville, Tennessee. According to the Affidavit, he showed signs of impairment and declined to perform any field sobriety test. Mr. Shively did make the statement that he probably had too much to drink and should not be driving. Mr. Shively did consent to having his blood drawn for a Blood Alcohol Content (BAC) test. He is to appear in Davidson County General Sessions Court, Nashville, Tennessee, on October 21, 2013, for an initial appearance, Case Number GS648881.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

This officer spoke with Mr. Shively on September 23, 2013, to discuss the arrest. Mr. Shively advised he had drank approximately 6 mixed drinks at an establishment in Printer's Alley and advised he was too intoxicated to drive. Mr. Shively's case will be referred for an alcohol intake and assessment.

Mr. Shively is currently employed and resides alone.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mr. Shively be continued on supervised release. The Court will be notified of the disposition so it may determine if any further action is necessary.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the offender's noncompliance.
